Dear Mr. Ekman:

I was very pleased to receive your note of June 2nd, with which you enclosed schedules of your various schools. Your interest and initiative are much appreciated.

It so happens that I am leaving Washington in a day or two, and plan to be gone until about July 15th. Under these circumstances I have taken the liberty of handing over your letter and the accompanying schedules to [redacted] of this office who was also present at the conference with [redacted]. It is possible that he will communicate with you before my return; if not I anticipate getting in touch with you myself when I come back to Washington.

Sincerely yours,
